Recommendation For MikvahCalendar.com

Our Rabbis have advised every Jewish family, who live lives of holiness and purity, to maintain an exact list in order to establish the precise times in the matter of "Taharat Hamishpacha," Family Purity. The creators of MikvahCalendar.com should be applauded for offering their expert services to present the main rabbinic opinions in this important area, for the good of the wider community.

The internet has immersed as a tool that is accessible to all those who are interested. Since it has many positive uses, such as the distribution of Divrei Torah etc, people should be encouraged to use this site, with all the precautions that are necessary for the use of the internet in general.

Therefore, may Hashem provide you with much blessing and reward for your excellent service.
